CAN READ OWN WATER METER

CITY ISSUES INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CONSUMER.

HOW TO FIND LEAKS

Even A Pin Hole Is Costly, Users Of Water Are Told.—Pamphlets To Be Distributed.

"Read your own" is the advice of the Maryville Water Department to its consumers, through a booklet which is being given to all who are interested and which gives instruction in reading the water meter, detecting leaks and what to do in such cases.

No sudden increase in the number of leaks has caused the decision to "educate" consumers, it was stated by J. W. Qualls, superintendent of the water department.

"There is nothing abnormal," he explained. "Just a desire to acquaint consumers with our method of meter reading, so that they may satisfy themselves as to the correctness of their bills, and instruction in detection of leaks so that they may find the reason if meter readings are too high."

Reading In Cubic Feet.

Local water meters give the readings in cubic feet, upon which the charge for water is based. Most of them are of the circular reading dial type, which is read in the same manner as the register of a gas or electric meter. Taking as an example a meter registering 79,584 cubic feet, the method of reading is given as follows:

"Place the number indicated by the hand on the '10' circle in the units place and the figure indicated by the hand on the '100' circle in the teens place, and so on, thus:

80
500
9,000
70,000

79,584 cu. ft.

"When a hand on one of the circles is in any position between two figures, take the lower number as the reading. If the hand seems precisely on the figure, observe whether the hand on the next lower circle has passed zero. If this is the case the count should be taken for the figure which the hand on the higher circle seems to indicate, but not otherwise.

"Assuming that the present reading indicates 79,584 and that the previous reading was 69,584, the difference between the two figures, or 10,000, would be the number of cubic feet of water consumed during the intervening period.

Never Reset Registers.

"It is never necessary to reset the registers. One cubic foot is equal to 7½ gallons of water."

From the reading thus determined, the consumer may compute his own bill from the following schedule of rates:

For first 500 cu. ft. consumed each month, per 100 cu. ft., 60 cents.

For next 500 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 50 cents.

For second 1,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 40 cents.

For third, 1,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 30 cents.

For fourth, 1,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 25 cents.

For next 30,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 20c.

For all over 34,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet, 15 cents.

From all these rates there is a 20 per cent discount if bills are paid before the 10th of the month following that which they cover.

Even a Leaky Faucet Costly.

Denouncing the insidious waste of a dripping faucet, the water department points out that it consumes 15 gallons of water a day or 60 cubic feet a month. An opening as small as one-thirty-second of an inch consumes 264 gallons a day or 1,065 cubic feet a month. A quarter-inch opening in a pipe or main would waste 15,226 gallons a day or 60,907 cubic feet a month.

Some of the invisible causes which produce water wastage were given as follows:

Corrosion which eats through iron service pipes.

Poor workmanship in wiping a lead joint.

A worn syphon ball in the water closet (a frequent cause and one sometimes hard to detect).

Lead pipes often completely eaten through by the effect of electrolysis.

Drilling of Oil Well Again Halted by Rain

Operations Will Be Resumed Tomorrow Morning and Continued Through Sunday, Says Driller.

Drilling at the test well of the Quitman Oil and Gas Co. again was halted today by muddy roads. After placing a second string of casing yesterday, reaching to the 890 foot depth, Driller G. H. Rose intended to resume operations today but postponed the start until tomorrow morning because of last night's heavy rain.

Rose estimated that two days of drilling under favorable conditions would take the hole down to the level in which oil sands are expected. Drilling probably will continue through Sunday.

Mrs. Owen's managers announced they will contest the primary.

Baron James Stevenson, Chairman of Investigating Commission Succumbs of Heart Disease.

London, June 10.—Baron James Stevenson, author of the British rubber restriction scheme died this morning of heart disease. Stevenson was managing director of John Walter & Sons, Ltd., distillers.

It Was a Good Rain —in Fact, a Fine One—Some Places

It was a good rain—in some localities.

A telephonic survey of Nodaway County this afternoon indicated that there was precipitation in all towns of the county with the exception of Conception and Clyde, but that the rainfall was greatest in the northern portions.

A hard electrical storm was experienced in Clearmont. The storm started about 1:30 and lasted most of the night. A horse belonging to William Hay was killed when struck by lightening.

At Burlington Junction 2 inches of rain were recorded and at Hopkins there was a like amount.

At Elmo it rained practically all night and some this morning, and at Pickering there was a good rain this morning.

There was just a sprinkle at Arkoe, Bedison and Guilford, just a shower at Orrsburg, Barnard and Graham, just a little at Skidmore, and not much at Parnell and Ravenwood.

There was a good rain at Quitman and a steady downpour from 2 to 4 o'clock this morning at Wilcox.

And Maryville—there was just a drizzle here.

ECONOMY IN STATE URGED

RESEARCH ASSOCIATION RECOMMENDS A BUDGET SYSTEM.

EXPENDITURE ALARM

Committee Headed By Elmer Donnell Points To Ninety Millions Paid Out In Two Years.

St. Louis, Mo., June 10.—Consolidation of approximately 100 boards and agencies of the Missouri state government into a limited number of departments and the adoption of a budget system for all branches of the administration were recommended to the general committee of the Missouri Association for Economy in Public Expenditures in a report on a preliminary survey made by Thomas H. Rogers, director of research.

The general committee, of which Elmer Donnell, managing director of the Associated Industries of Missouri, is general chairman, was organized six months ago to analyze the state government and recommended a program for greater efficiency and economy in administration. The purpose of the session today is to determine the scope of the program to be submitted to the legislature in January.

In the report which the general committee has under consideration, figures of the state auditor are used to show that the biennial disbursements of the government for state purposes aggregated $90,430,238.08 in 1923-24. In order to arrive at a more definite approximation of the cost of government, however, the bonds issued during those two years for bonus and road purposes, and all federal aid for highway construction, were deducted because interest and retirement of the bonds are provided for from other funds which also are included in the auditor's table on disbursements.

Mounting Costs Astounding.

"Among officials," Rogers says in his report, "It has been custommary to attribute the cost of government to the direct tax which goes into the revenue fund and the fees and charges from various sources that aid in building up that one fund. An analysis of conditions, however, shows that state government costs far exceed the amount paid through the thirty-seven sources from which the general fund is derived. As a matter of fact, this fund is but a small part of the cost of the Missouri state government. The actual cost is astounding. For instance, instead of our government costing only $21,936,461.16, which is the amount the state auditor gives as the total receipts of the general revenue fund for the biennium of 1923-24, the disbursements given by that official aggregate $90,430,238.08, as shown on page 314 of his report for the two years."

Tables are presented to show that the disbursements in 1903-1904 were $10,425,899.82, and $18,706,411.83 in 1913-1914. Accepting the auditor's figures, with deductions made of the bonus and road bonds and federal aid for roads, the cost of government is placed at approximately $65,000,000 in the absence of exact tabulations from any state official. In this way it is shown that the cost of government has increased six times in the past twenty years, and three and one-half times in the past ten.

"Apologists for the increased cost of government in the state rely on a plea that 'the state has grown,' and that costs naturally are higher," the report states. "But let us compare the increased cost of government and the increased wealth. According to the Statistical Abstract of the United States, the wealth of Missouri in 1904 was $3,760,000,000, in 1912 was$5,728,000,00, and was $9,982,000,000 in 1922. Thus the wealth of Missouri increased 166 per cent in twenty years, and 75 per cent in the last ten. But governmental costs leaped upward by comparison. On the basis of $65,000,000 for the biennium, which is the approximate cost after the total issue for the two years of bonus and highway bonds and federal aid for roads have been deducted, the disbursements have been even more disturbing. This shows that costs increased 247 per cent between 1914 and 1924, and 523 per cent between 1904 and 1924. In other words, the cost of government has increased proportionately 2.15 times as fast in twenty years as wealth, and 2.3 times as fast in ten years. It is apparent that government costs are all out of proportion as com-

Brookhart's Speech Causes Stir in Iowa

Business, Banking and Political Leaders Aghast Over Utterances of Victor Over Cummins.

Des Moines, June 10.—Business, banking and political circles in Iowa were agog today over the utterances of Smith W. Brookhart, Republican nominee for the United States Senate, and who, in a speech at a labor convention last night at Mason City, declared that all profits over 5 per cent on invested capital should be turned into a fund for public use.

Brookhart also declared that the legal rate of interest should not be more than 5 per cent or less than 4 per cent.

His speech was made before the state convention of the Iowa Federation of Labor. It was his first public appearance since he was nominated for the Senate over Senator Albert B. Cummins last Monday.

BRAZIL QUITS LEAGUE POST

WILL NO LONGER SIT IN COUNCIL OF NATIONS.

MAY RESIGN ENTIRLEY

Hungarian Newspaper Man Enters Secret Meeting and Strikes Premier in the Face.

Geneva, June 10.—Brazil today tendered her resignation from the League of Nations Council.

Brazil's action follows a long controversy over a reorganization of the League Council and the failure of the Council to accede to Brazil's demand for a permanent seat on the Council.

Mello Franco, the Brazillian delegate to the Council, made a lengthy speech in which he outlined the history of Brazil's claims for a permanent seat in the Council and in concluding, he said:

"Brazil no longer accepts the honor of sitting in the Council and therefore resigns.

The Brazillian delegate did not indicate whether Brazil intends to resign from the League or not. Brazil and Spain have both made threats to resign from the League of Nations because of their failure to win permanent seats in the Council.

Brazil's action today may be a forerunner of the resignation of that nation from the League, although Brazil had previously given notice that she would not attend the September meeting of the Council.

Spain is also threatening to take action similar to that taken by Brazil.

Meanwhile, League leaders are striving to find some measures om compromise whereby both Brazil and Spain may be satisfied.

Geneva, June 10.—A Hungarian newspaper man forced his way into a secret session of the Hungarian commission to the League of Nations today and unceremoniously struck Count Bethlen, head of the commission and Hungarian premier, a blow in the face.

The journalist was arrested immediately.

"For five years, Count Bethlen has martyrized the Hungarian people," the arrested man said.

Count Bethlen caused a surprise yesterday when he appeared at the League secretariat, accompanied by an armed guard of six Swiss federal officers. This was the first time an officer attending a League meeting had asked for Swiss police protection.

It is understood that Bethlen had received letters threatening him with personal attack.

PEPPER VOTES BY WATCHERS

PINCHOT'S MANAGER TELLS OF SCHEME USED.

ABOUT 50,000 PAID

Witness Says Vare's Candidate for Governor Is Counted Out in Number of Pittsburgh Districts.

Washington, June 10.—On the heels of the revelation that approximately one-half million dollars were spent in Pittsburgh by the Vare and Pepper organizations merely for paid watchers to watch each other, Charles C. McGovern, western campaign manager for Governor Gifford Pinchot, openly charged this afternoon that E. E. Beidleman, the Vare candidate for governor, was counted out in Pittsburgh by the Pepper-Mellon-Fisher organization in the recent Pennsylvania primary.

"Beidleman was elected Wednesday morning, the day after the election, by 70,000 votes, on the face of returns then in. But 500 districts were held out in Alleghany County until Thursday and the result was that Fisher was nominated," said McGovern.

Washington, June 10.—One out of every three votes cast in the Allegheny County or Pittsburgh district of the Mellon-Pepper stronghold in the Pennsylvania primary was cast by a paid watcher employed by one or another of the Senatorial candidates, Charles C. McGovern, western manager for Governor Pinchot, a defeated candidate, testified today in the Senate investigation of the huge campaign expenditures.

The vote cast in the Pepper area was approximately 150,000, he said, and the paid watchers on the payrolls totalled nearly 50,000.

"Do you mean that the employment of these watchers was one way of buying their votes?" asked Senator James A. Reed, Democrat of Missouri.

"In a large measure, yes," replied McGovern.

McGovern declared that the Pittsburgh machine only made up its mind a day or two before the primary as to which candidate would be supported. Vare and Max G. Leslie now rule the machine, he said.

"Usually, we do not know who has won until the Friday after the election," said McGovern. "In the last election, Beidleman led by 60,000 Wednesday morning and he was 10,000 behind Wednesday night. That was a change of 70,000 votes on Wednesday."

"And these votes were held by the county commissioners?" asked Reed.

"Yes," McGovern replied.

McGovern told of the state attorney-general going to Pittsburgh to get a court order to permit examination of votes.

The court held its decision under advisement, the witness added, and in the meantime the returns board, which officially counts the ballots, met, so the court proceedings were useless."

"The courts then and the regular constituted authorities were unable to furnish any relief?" asked Reed.

"Yes," replied McGovern.

McGovern said that Pinchot had appointed him controller of Allegheny County last Saturday. The promotion increased his salary from $3,000 to $8,000 a year.

When question by Senator Reed, chairman, McGovern explained that a voter could only register if he had paid a city or county tax in the two years preceding the election.

"On our first examination of the books, we found 2,500 names on the registered books of persons who had no such receipts," he said.

"How could these people register and produce a receipt for taxes unless they had tax receipts?"

"In this instance, they had fraudulent tax receipts."

"It has been said here that there were 7,000 illegally registered, what about that?" asked Reed.

"That is right," McGovern replied. "We began first to strike off those 2,500 names. We send out about 500 subpoenas and soon found that lawyers appeared on behalf of persons registered, because, under the law, we must subpoena them and give them a hearing."

"How many names did you strike off the poll books?"

"About 300 or 350 out of the 2,500," McGovern said.

Car Stolen From Hopkins Man Found

Dick Millikan, accompanied by Frank Litsch, Skeet Rickard and W. L. Moorhead went to St. Joe Monday, the police having phoned Dick that his Chrysler touring car that had been stolen from the streets of St. Joseph the Friday night before, had been recovered, the car being found at a road house some seven miles out of St. Joe. Aside from four casings being taken from the car, it was in just as good shape as when the thief drove it away, but at that, Dick is out about $150, counting the cost of casings and the expenses he has been put in recovering the car. No trace was found of the thief.—Hopkins Journal.

Shenandoah Pastor O. K.s Sunday Golf

Thirty Members of First Congregational Church Will Meet at Links First Then Attend Services.

Shenandoah, Ia., June 10.—The Rev. L. A. Lippitt, pastor of the First Congregational church of Shenandoah, has approved a plan which will be inaugurated next Sunday, of Sunday golf, church and Sunday school.

Thirty members, 30 to 88 years old, will meet at the Southmoreland Country Club at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, where they will tee off for a 9-hole round of play. Following the game the knicker-clad aggregation will dash back to town and to Sunday school, where Bible stories replace golf fables.

"Golf is a grand game and I'd play it myself on Sunday afternoons if I weren't a pastor and might offend someone," said Mr. Lippitt today. "I'm just a dub, but I like to play golf. Sunday golf, too, is all right if one does not let it interfere with church or family. One's conscience should be the guide.

"Some members of my church get practically no opportunity to play golf in the week and I told them if they didn't find time to change their clothes after their Sunday morning round of golf, it would be perfectly all right for them to wear their knickers and sweaters to Sunday school and church."

Two More Speeders Arrested Last Night

Two more speeders were arraigned in police court today in the campaign of local police to check fast driving in the city. Robert Straugh, arrested on the new paving on West Fifth street, pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs, a total of $10.65. Allen F. Russell, arrested on North Fillmore stret, also pleaded guilty and was assessed the same penalty. Both arrests were made last night by Officer Leo Atherton.

Washington, June 10.—The White House is to get a picture of President Harding.

President Coolidge in a week or two will sign a joint resolution passed by both houses appropriating $2,500 for a Harding oil painting for the executive mansion.

The measure occasioned some discussion in the House, where Rep. LaGuardia, Socialist, New York, demanded that it be amended to require an American artist to make the painting. His motion was defeated.

Four Sales to Be Held at Courthouse

Disposal of Robey Properties Under Court Order of Partition Attracts Interest.

A partition sale in which much interest is expected will be that of the properties contained in the estate of the late A. S. Robey, a former mayor of Maryville, which will be offered to the highest bidder at the courthouse door at 2 o'clock Saturday. Three smaller sales will be held at the same time.

The Robey sale was ordered by Circuit Court after part of the heirs had shown that it had been impossible to divide the properties privately. They include the garage building located at 114-116 West Fourth street, now occupied by the Sewell Auto Co.; three residence properties on West Fourth street, including the large Robey home at the corner of Fourth and Mulberry streets; the Hunter Mill property on Vine street and a business building on Walnut street in Skidmore.

Two of the smaller sales will dispose of fifteen acres of land, about one and one-half miles northeast of Pickering, known as the Henry Reed or Crouse land, to be sold under partition, and five acres in the same vicinity, to be sold under special execution in the suit of K. D. Cross against Roy and Edith Judah.

The fourth sale will involve lots 3 and 4 in block 4, Morton's addition to Maryville, and is the result of a partition suit brought by Elmer Wing and Mary Patton against Phebe E. Smith and others.

Miss Margaret Hall, nutrition expert of the Battle Creek College of Home Economics.

Scientific Battle Creek was more than satisfied
Great institution recommends Perfection after exacting tests

TRULY scientific is the Battle Creek College of Home Economics. Its nutrition expert, Miss Margaret Allen Hall, cooked many meals on a Perfection in a nation-wide cooking test conducted by six famous cooks. Miss Hall expressed the most complete satisfaction with the Perfection.

The results were fine

"Whether I broiled mushrooms, boiled peas or fried timbale cases the results were fine," she said. "The stove lighted quickly. Its heat was steady and even and so easily regulated that I cooked all those dishes at the same time, using a different grade of heat for each.

The flame is steady

"The flame did not creep or crawl. I tested the oven with a standard oven thermometer and found that I could keep it any length of time at the temperature I desired. This is very necessary for successful baking.

Odors don't mix in the oven

"One meal I cooked entirely in the oven, corn and cheese souffle, stuffed tomatoes seasoned with onions, and angel food cake. There was no mingling of odors. This meal saved fuel, too, as I used only one burner. Through the glass doors I could see at any moment how every dish was getting along.

"The Perfection is easy to handle and easy to keep clean. And I didn't have to scrub pots and pans. The long chimneys prevented discoloration. From the former knowledge I had of oil stoves, my expectations were exceeded by the performance of the Perfection."

Battle Creek Recommends

This recommendation came from the Battle Creek College of Home Economics after the most exacting laboratory tests. Scientific Battle Creek was more than satisfied. And the Perfection was proved ready to meet the cooking needs of any household.

All six famous cooks recommend the Perfection. Every day 4,500,000 women with Perfections in their kitchens are having real cooking satisfaction.

Feeling the Pulse of the People

Question: What do you think of the idea of a public playground for the children of Maryville?

D. A. Caldwell, secretary, Chamber of Commerce, "Maryville needs more and better playground equipment to provide safe and healthful recreation for its many growing boys and girls. A large number of cities of this size and even smaller are finding that the investment of a few hundred dollars in modern, permanent play-ground equipment pays big dividends in the health and happiness of the children. A steadily increasing number of communities are employing play-ground directors, either on a full-time or part-time basis, to direct the recreational activities of the boys and girls. This reduces juvenile delinquency in a large measure and takes considerable load of responsibility from the parents during the summer months when the schools are closed, as well as giving much wholesome fun to the youngsters. A community which prides itself on its progress as does Maryville, can well afford to give serious thought to this question now, for the boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow. Proper recreation in the right amount is as much a part of the education of children as school attendance."

H. Frank Lawrence, coach at the College, "It would be a fine thing if properly supervised. A well-equipped playground without proper supervision would be a waste of money."

Harland Carter, "A good thing, I think. It would keep the kids off the street."

Dean Blagg, furniture salesman, "It would be all right. It would teach the children to play under organized supervision."

Joab Nicholas, clothing salesman, "It would be pretty good stuff because it would afford recreation and amusement for the kiddies and keep them satisfied."

Dr. W. B. Owen, "It would be a very good thing because it would afford social democracy for the children."

Fred Wright, deputy county clerk, "It would be all right, surely. We need some place where the children can go and have a good time."

William H. Ellsworth, bill poster, "I don't care a thing about it. I haven't any children. They ought to have some place to keep them off the street, though."

John Smith, jewelry clerk, "I don't think there are enough kids in town to use it. I'll bet a dime that if you had one, you wouldn't have fifty kids there a day."

Hopkins to Organize a Band Next Tuesday

According to Dr. C. W. Kirk and Frank Litsch, who are taking an active part in the movement, Hopkins is soon to have a band, it being expected that the organization will be formed next Tuesday.

Prof. Mitchell, who leads the Bedford and New Market bands, will act as director and is said to be very successful in this line of work.

Hopkins has a number of old players who will poin the organization and help in every way they can.

Will Akin is an old tuba player; John Dooley is good on the baritone. Frank Litsch plays the cornet and there are others, including several young ladies who will join and help the beginners in every way they can.

The band will be under the direction of Prof. Mitchell until school opens when it is planned to turn the direct orship over to the music department of the school.—Hopkins Journal.

By BILLY TILSON

R. L. McGinniss, northwest of Wilcox, delivered a truck load of 220-pound hogs to the Forsyth packing company yesterday, receiving $14.25 per hundred for them.

Charles Nichols, southeast of Quitman, had a load of hogs on the St. Joseph market yesterday. Charley got in on a falling market receiving $14.55 per hundred for them and says he is perfectly satisfied with the price received.

Art Wiley and family, who live near Cameron, were visiting relatives and friends in the Pickering neighborhood for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Wiley formally lived northeast of Maryville, but they see many changes since leaving this county.

In traveling over the eastern and south part of Jackson township the last two days we found the farmers very busy with their work. Corn is being cultivated and the first cutting of alfalfa is about all in the mow. Rain is badly needed in that section of the county. Pastures are getting short. The oats haven't made much of a growth and the yield will be light.

Jackson township has a force of men grading the roads and expect to keep the work up all summer and by winter all roads in that township will be in good condition for traveling.

P. J. Newsberry, west of Ravenwood, has a fine bunch of young lambs that will soon be sent to the market.

W. A. Henry, east of Ravenwood, has just completed the building of a new barn and it is now ready for the painters.

E. C. Gooden, northeast of Ravenwood, shipped out forty head of Chester White hogs to the St. Joseph market the first of the week. These were a well finished bunch and commanded around the top.

William Bogue, southeast of Ravenwood, is stripping bluegrass for Howard Beedle this week. We noticed quite a few stripping in that part of the county, a great many acres being pretty short for stripping.

Tom O'Day, northeast of Maryville, has a fine field of corn and has it cultivated over the second time.

Ernest Wray northeast of the city, has a fine field of oats. They are heading out and look like they will make a good yield. Alfred Jones of the same neighborhood also has a fine field of oats, also a fine field of corn.

Bud West, who lives on the S. P. Ross farm, east of Harmony, has a fine field of alfalfa that he is putting in the mow. He says corn plowing and haying keeps him stepping around to get it cared for.

A great many small bunches of hogs over the county are being trucked to the St. Joseph market this week. The scarcity of hogs makes it hard to get a car load together and those that have them ready to go want to get in while the market is good.

IN DAYS OF OUR FOREFATHERS

Women Prepared Their Own Medicines

The wise pioneer women learned to gather, in woods and fields, the remedies the Indians used. From the rafters of colonial houses, hung great bunches of dried roots and herbs. From these, in times of sickness, the busy mother brewed simple and powerful remedies. From roots and herbs, Lydia E. Pinkham, a descendant of these sturdy pioneers, made her Vegetable Compound. The beneficial effects of this dependable medicine are vouched for by hundreds of women.

Mrs. Wm. Kraft of 2838 Vinewood Ave., Detroit, Mich., saw a Pinkham advertisement in the "News" one day and made up her mind that she would give the Compound a trial. At that time she was very weak. "After the first bottle," she writes, "I began to feel better and like a new woman after taking six bottles. I recommend it to others and always keep a bottle in the house."

Mrs. Gust Green of 401 Lincoln Park Boulevard, Rockford, Illinois, found herself in a condition similar to that of Mrs. Kraft. "I was weak and rundown," she writes, "but the Vegetable Compound has helped me and I feel better now. I recommend it to all women who need more strength."

Closing Grain Review.

Chicago, June 10.—Grain prices closed lower on the Chicago Board of Trade today in sympathy with the sharp slump in wheat.

Wheat closed sharply lower in all positions after a flood of selling orders reached the market and longs liquidated extensive holdings.

Kansas City and Omaha cash wheat sold fully 4 cents lower today.

Corn was sharply lower in all positions because of the influence of the wheat pit.

Oats closed a big fraction lower in all positions, but had the firmest tone of any grain.

Provisions closed lower.

Child-birth
Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes." Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradfield Regulator Co., BA 40, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. "Mother's Friend" is sold by all drug stores—everywhere.

pared to the increase in wealth."

$52,115,649 Spent Last Year.

In order to give a clearer perspective of the growth of expenditures, the report places the annual expenditures for 1925 at $52,115,694.81, but adds that "no deductions are made for bond issues during the year." It then quotes the expenditures for other years as follows: In 1915, $9,719,943.05; for 1905, $6,047,148.16; for 1895, $4,191,688.77.

The report points out that the waste in government is due to a lack of proper supervision of expenditures, and not to dishonesty of officials. Occassionally there is a charge against some particular official, but these are rare and are but incidental to the tremendous expenditures that could be checked through establishment of a proper budget supervision. Reference is made to the report to the practice of departments maintained out of foes collected "as one of the worst phases of government in the state," because "in too many instances inspectional departments have been nothing more than a political adjunct to the party in power at Jefferson City." The report attributes the fault to the system rather than to the administration in power.

"It may be urged that the use of disbursements in determining the cost of government is unjust," the report states, "but it is imposible for any official at Jefferson City otherwise even to approximate the cost. The books of the state are kept in such a way that a definite estimate of cost is obtainable, nor is that the particular fault of officials today or of the past. It is the fault of the system and lack of real fiscal supervision. The sysem of accounting in Missouri, according to officials past and present is archaic. It has not progressed as system of accounting have done in other states. Funds are not properly accounted for. Many institutions in Missouri, as well as some boards, collect and spend fees without accounting for them through the state treasury. No official knows the exact amount of funds collected and disbursed without passing through the state's fiscal depattment, although apparently several millions are annually spent in this way."

It is set out that these institutions and boards periodically audited by the state auditor, but the reports are filed away and are not even made until after the fees are collected and spent. A recommendation is made that all such fees, under a budget system, should be reported to the state treasurer and paid through warrants as regular appropriations are paid, but that all fees collected by an institution should be credited to the fund of that particular institution.

Would Consolidate Boards.

As a means of concentrating authority and responsibility through which a more efficient and economic government will be possible, the association is considering the recommendation that institutions be grouped under a limited number of departments, and that appointed boards and officials be consolidated so that there will be less friction in managing the functions of government. To this end the report considered today proposed adoption of an administrative code, which is a grouping of departments and agencies of government so that all will harmonize and cooperate toward establishing and maintaining an economic and efficient administration.

The other step proposed is the establishment of a budget system. Forty-five states have adopted a budget system of some kind. Missouri is one of three that has not.

"Whatever budget plan is adopted in Missouri," says the report under consideration, "it should be based upon a thorough supervision of revenues and expenditures. Power should be vested in the budget officer to enforce, through the auditor's office, a uniform accounting system in all branches of the state service."

The report sets out that in many states material savings have been accomplished through the budget method of handling state funds. In Pennsylvania, which is one of four states visited by the director of the association, a net saving of $1,964,720.85 was shown during the first two years of the budget system in five of the principal accounts.

Among Maryville visitors yesterday were Father Odilo and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hovenentter, Parnell; H. C. Bailey, Quitman; Father Ambrose, Conception College; Frank Withrow, Tarkio; and Father Ambrose of Conception Junction.

"It frequently happens that the failure of water to reach the third, or even the second, story of a building is caused not by the lact of pressure in the street mains but by corroded service pipes," it is explained in the pamphlet.

Corrosion Impairs Pressure.

"In consequence of corrosion and leakage, cases are frequently found where the pressure on the street main as taken at the hydrant is 100 pounds and that on the first floor of an adjacent dwelling is only three or four pounds. This condition when discovered can be corrected only by replacing the old service pipe with a new one."

After explaining how to detect leaks and how to replace washers in leaky faucets, the consumer is advised:

"If there is a leak call a plumber immediately. Do not allow a leak to continue indifinitely, as it adds to your bill every minute. We will be glad to assist consumers in locating leaks if necessary."

Gas prices will be investigated. We thought them high enough already.
